"He who laughs last, laughs best!"

Disguises, cross dressing, a late-night forest prank, plots and counterplots! It's a laughfest of operatic proportions!

Sir John Falstaff, a well-aged knight who thinks he's still "got it," send identical love letters to two married ladies in the hopes of tapping into their husbands' fortunes and restoring his dwindling finances.

The merry wives of Windsor are quickly onto him however, and the down-and-out Knight of the Garter is soon hung out to dry!

Promises kept and fragile hearts broken

Irresistible melody infused with vivid and lush orchestration, results in a masterpiece that is among the most exquisite and moving in all of French opera.

The young poet, Werther, falls instantly in love with the beautiful and unattainable Charlotte who has promised to marry another. Werther tries to stay away, but his tormented heart aches to be with her. Seeking peace the only way he knows how, he takes his own life as Charlotte finally returns his love.
